We encourage you to read this privacy policy. In addition, as a part of the Council of American Survey Research Organizations (“CASRO”), the professional trade association of survey research companies, CIRQ adheres to the mandated CASRO Code of Standards and Ethics. At this web site, CIRQ does not actively initiate any collection of any individual information. We passively collect information that is automatically sent to us by your web browser. This information typically includes your domain name (the site after the @ in your e-mail address). It may also contain your user name (the name before the @ in your e-mail address). The amount of information sent depends on the settings you have on your web browser; please refer to your browser if you want to learn what information it sends. At this page we do not actively seek to identify any individual visitor, with the exception of investigating security breaches or cooperating with authorities pursuant to a legal matter.

We use the information we automatically receive from your web browser to see which pages you visit within our site, which site you visited before coming to ours, and where you go after you leave. We at CIRQ can then develop statistics that are helpful to understanding how this site is used by our visitors. This statistical data is interpreted by CIRQ in its continuing effort to present the web site content that visitors are seeking in a format they find most helpful.

CIRQ will not use or share, either within CIRQ or with a third party, any information collected at this page for direct marketing purposes. Because of the nature of the Internet, we may transmit the information to another country, but within CIRQ, for purposes other than direct marketing, such as for storage, or because of where our servers are located. We may also use it to investigate security breaches or cooperate with authorities pursuant to a legal matter. We may also remove all the personally identifiable information and use the rest for historical, statistical or scientific purposes.

If you e-mail us, or submit a request for quotation, you are voluntarily releasing information to us. Your contact information will be used by CIRQ to respond to you. We will not use the information that can identify you, such as your telephone number or e-mail address, for direct marketing purposes.

In addition, we may have collected similar information from you in the past. By entering this web site you are consenting to the terms of our information privacy policy and to our continued use of previously collected information.

In the event of a sale, merger, liquidation, dissolution, reorganization or acquisition of CIRQ, or a CIRQ business or business unit, information CIRQ has collected about you may be sold or otherwise transferred. However, this will only happen if the party acquiring the information agrees to be bound by the terms of CIRQ's privacy policy and the notice provided to you when the information was collected.

For your convenience, this page may contain certain hyperlinks to other CIRQ pages as well as to web sites outside CIRQ.
